

I understand that a banking org. is trying to weaken the Indiana no call law. I have total enjoy the lack of calls on my home phone over the last few years. I would ask not to weaken this law. If i want services from companys that I do business with I will contact them. If this law is weaken, I will have no choice but to do away with my home phone and use my cell phone for all calls.

thank

Kerry Harte